

mobile 404.230.8469

email agavilla@oiatl.com

AMY GAVILLA
SENIOR DIRECTOR OF WORKPLACE DESIGN &
CLIENT SERVICES

With over 20 years of distinguished experience in the commercial office furniture industry, including a decade in leadership positions, Amy is a dedicated professional known for delivering exceptional service to all stakeholders. She possesses a wealth of expertise in collaborating with departmental managers to develop and refine corporate policies and processes, budgeting, performance analysis, multi-departmental leadership, and fostering strong relationships with external partners.

Throughout her career, she has successfully overseen day-to-day operations across multi-state locations, consistently exceeding customer expectations and enhancing satisfaction. Adept at setting strategic goals for departments, she has consistently driven high levels of productivity and maintained positive employee morale.

Her track record of success is built upon strong leadership skills, unwavering accountability, a commitment to quality, and personal integrity. Throughout her professional journey, she has excelled in diverse roles encompassing management, project management, bid management, administration, marketing, operations, sales, and executive support. She is recognized for her strengths in strategic thinking, leadership, problem-solving, and delivering exceptional service.

With a genuine passion for her work, she remains fully dedicated to the commercial office furniture industry. Every day she strives to provide unwavering commitment and value to both clients and stakeholders.