BILL COONS
PRESIDENT & FOUNDING PRINCIPAL

As Founding Principal of Office Interiors, Bill is dedicated to delivering beautiful, innovative and functional workspaces within predetermined budgets and ensuring that all client objectives are met. Bill's more than 35 years of industry experience provides him the necessary expertise to assist clients identify and achieve optimal workplace solutions, while successfully executing the design, management and budgeting of multi-million dollar projects.

Bill attended both Louisville and Eastern Kentucky University and graduated with a bachelors degree in Interior Design. Bill Coons began his career at the Webb Companies, a national developer building in 63 U.S. markets, where he became the youngest Vice President in company history. He then joined a New York metro-based facility management and design firm, working with a variety of clients including Tiffany & Co., Calvin Klein Cosmetics Co., and Baker & Taylor and more. In 1991, Bill relocated to Atlanta to launch Facilitec.